Invitation to Self-Examination and Confession of Our Need for God's Forgiveness (unison)

Jesus, God's own Son, you came to earth as a child, to be cradled in our hearts; however, we are unwilling guardians, unprepared to love one who makes demands on us at all hours. You ask that we receive God's love as a child, with trust and joy, but we are too grown up to love without calculating the cost of friendship. As you lived out your youth in Nazareth, maturing in grace and wisdom, you bid us realize that our lives are not yet complete. We confess our reluctance to admit that we yet have growing to do. Merciful God, forgive us. Help us to become as children: astonished at grace, accepting of love, and hungry for spiritual growth.
